KEARNEY IN BOSTON.

His Speech to the Laborers of the Hub.

The San Francisco Chronicle of Monday morning contains this special dispatch from Boston:

Boston, July 29.

Dennis Kearney, President of the Workingmen's party of California, his Private Secretary, Carl Browne, and the agitator's younger brother, T. Kearney, reached here via Albany at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Long before the train was due the crowd began to congregate at the depot, and when the train arrived there was a perfect jam of people. Kearney and party were placed in a carriage under the arrangement of a committee and driven to the Sherman House, a large procession with flying banners following. On arriving at the hotel Kearney appeared at a window amid great applause, only equalled by that so often echoed at the sand lot, and said:

Fellow Workingmen of Boston: I hope you will excuse me. I have had a long journey. In the future I trust you will have ample opportunity to hear me speak at length. [Cheers.] I am glad to see you up and doing here on this monopoly-ridden Atlantic slope. I bring the glad tidings that we left the plains of California strewn with the festering carcasses of political plunderers, while our co-workers are pegging away at the rest. [Applause.] Our war is death to monopoly, death to debased capital, death to Mongolian slavery, as well as African or any other slavery, and death upon death to political plunderers and blood-suckers of all parties! I come not here to represent any particular class, faction or ism, or creed; no nationality but American. I came here to represent and to meet honest workingmen fighting for their rights because the flag that we have upheld, and will again, is to day a damning lie. [Sensation.] It does not wave for liberty. It waves to protect a band of pirates. [Cheers.] We propose to make it again wave for liberty—the liberty of the workingmen! [Great applause.] We will make this light by the ballot—that power which, in the hands of an honest people, is a scepter wielded more potent than the swords of monarchies. [Cheers.] Friends, I have been misrepresented. The Associated Press news gatherers, working in the unscrupulous interests of thieves and depraved press, have distorted my sayings in their insane and hellish attempt to fasten on a free people the shackles of a slavery worse than death.

After cheers for the agitator the crowd dispersed.

The Associated Press dispatches say Kearney was received only by a small delegation, and attributes his reception generally.

LIGHTNING AND TREES.—It cannot be too often repeated that this season of the year, when under stormy and so frequent, that one of the most dangerous places in which to take shelter is under a large tree. Of all the persons and animals killed by lightning probably eight tenths have been destroyed under or near trees. Oak trees more frequently than others draw lightning from the clouds, partly, perhaps, because the close grain of the oak increases its conducting power, and partly because the sap of the oak contains a large quantity of iron in solution, which, by impregnating the wood and bark, has the same effect.

J. C. HAGERMAN, of Reno, Democratic candidate for Governor, arrived here yesterday and left for the eastern part of the State this morning. He is hopeful of getting the nomination, but whether he does or not will do all he can for the ticket, and will work for the choice of the Convention with a will, whoever it may be.—Winn. Silver State 29th.

THE TRAMP'S LAMENT.—A tramp sat on one of the benches in the Park, weeping softly. "Why weepest?" inquired a little girl, touching his tattered garment and suddenly withdrawing. "Gee!" he exclaimed in piteous accents, "they're feeding soft crabs to the octopus at the 'Quarum and he don't work nuz. Whyfore growl they at me?"

A GRAND PROJECT.

A Big Wood and Lumber Fluming Enterprise.

The Lyon county Times of last Saturday gives the following account of a new fluming project:

Diagrams showing the proposed lines of Hobart, Marlette & Co.'s new flume have been filed in Storey, Washoe and Lyon counties. The initial point of the new flume will be at Lake View, near Washoe Lake, at the present terminus of the company's flumes from the Sierra Nevada mountains to Lake View, which taps a body of over 60,000 acres of timber land owned by the flume company. From that point the new flume will run south some distance and cross the North Carson Mining Co.'s ground at right angles. About two miles north of the North Carson claim there will be a wire railroad a mile and a half in length, operated by a stationary engine. The railroad will be on an inclined plane, the grade of which will be about 750 feet to the mile. All the wood, lumber and timber required in Gold Hill and Virginia will be carried over this railroad to the initial point of a flume beginning at the end of the railroad and running to Virginia, the water required being supplied by the Virginia and Gold Hill Water Company.

The terminal point of the main flume, however, will be in this city, directly in front of the Kosuth Company's hoisting works. In order to reach this point the flume, leaving the wire railway to the north, will have a general northeasterly course to the Monnd House, where it will cross the Virginia and Truckee Railroad track about a quarter of a mile to the north, and pass about half a mile north of the New York House. It is the intention of the company to supply all the wood and timber used on and about the Comstock through these flumes. The company will sell at wholesale only, so that the retail trade will not be interfered with. The whole will be under the management of Captain Overton, Superintendent of the Virginia and Gold Hill Water Company.

This flume will probably lessen the cost of wood, lumber and timber, as the heavy freight rates now paid over the Virginia and Truckee Railroad from Lake View will be economized, and the expense of handling at Lake View will be entirely done away with.

FOUR MILE AND REPEAT RACE.—The enterprising lessee of Agricultural Park, Robert Allen, announces a proprietor's purse of $3,000 for a four mile and repeat race, to come off at Agricultural Park sometime during next October. It will be free to all horses now owned in California, Oregon, and Nevada—Mollie McCarty barred—first horse to get $2,000; second, $7,000; third, $3,000. Entries will close with Mr. Allen August 15th, and the horses are to be named ten days before the race. No less than five horses are to enter and three must start.—Sacramento Bee.

HOME SCENE.—Husband entering and throwing himself languidly upon the sofa, as he wipes the perspiration from his brow: "O dear, business is killing me, I am so tired." Wife, jumping for a pillow: "Lay down there like a good dear fellow, and take a little rest." Little four-year old daughter: "O papa, I thought 'twould be awful tired after I saw 'oo carrying the new hired girl 'bout the kitchen." Tablean, blue fire, etc.

SELLING OUT REGARDLESS OF COST.—Weil Brothers, of the Cleveland Suit and Cloth Co., desire to inform the ladies of Reno that they intend to get out business by August 1st, and therefore offer their full line of ladies' dresses, ladies underwear, hosiery and fancy goods of all kinds, at prices to command the attention and patronage of all. Call early and secure bargains. Goods warranted as represented in every case. Counter and store fixtures for sale. Weil Bros., East side Virginia street, Reno.

At Osburn & Shoemaker's you can buy Florida Water for 25c and 50c; Cashmere Boquet Soap for 25c, other toilet soaps in proportion; Sanders' Face Powder, 37½c, other toilet powders in proportion; also just received from the East a large and splendid assortment of Fancy Hair Oils, Cologne, Extracts, etc., which we offer at prices lower than ever offered in Reno. Call and see them.

WHO WANTS BARGAINS?—The dissolution sale of Barnett Bros. offers extra inducements just now, if you have the coin and need Dry Goods, Clothing, etc., of any kind. They sell without regard to cost, as a glance at their price list in another part of this paper shows. Let all who want bargains call on them as they mean just what they say.

The tax is assessed on money for the fiscal year of 1876.

GONE FROM OUR GAZE.

Potter has closed up shop, but not before every one was heartily sick of him and had turned to ridicule his efforts to galvanize and bring back to newness of life the moribund old wrecker of Gramercy Park headquarters. To have saved the managers of the concern a shred of respect, the whole business should have been incontinently dropped the day of the passage of Barchard resolution. But with characteristic obstinacy it was kept up, everybody understanding just as well as Potter and his subalterns, the falsehood and arrant hypocrisy underlying their pretensions. But after the manner of the members of other Committees they appear determined to have a good time at Summer resorts at public expense, meeting the criticism certain to be provoked by a piece of public business.

The most of us taking any interest in public affairs were satisfied from the habitual lying, defrauding and swindling which have come to light from time to time at the various Indian agencies, that the present uprising of the aboriginal tribes had been to a great extent provoked by the so called almoners of Government annuities; but we were not prepared for the astounding revelations of villany at the Crow Creek Agency that have just been made public. Our readers will get the details that the limited space allotted here will not justify us in attempting to recapitulate; suffice it to say that Government, Indians, Agency employees, and, in short, every one so unfortunate as to have come in contact with the Agent, Livingstone, and his pal, the post-trader, have been cheated and swindled in a manner that would have made the ruffian-thief "Reformers" of New York City detest themselves for their incapacity and lack of cleverness in their particular specialty. Livingstone and "Bird" are said to have amassed fortunes during the few years of their stewardship. Livingstone was one of the Episcopalian quota of agents appointed under church auspices, in conformity with the undoubtedly honest effort made to reform the Indian service and purge it of its corruptions by delegating to the chief denominations in the United States the right to designate the appointees, pro rata, as near as practicable. In this connection the source of deepest regret will be that these two vampires in their own persons cannot be made to suffer the aggregate death pangs of the hundreds who will be sacrificed in a war that has largely been brought about by the speculations and wholesale frauds of the land pirates known as Indian Agents. The latest dispatches from the theater of war in Oregon go to confirm the suspicion that the danger from the hostilities had been over rated by the dismayed officials and citizens, when the presence of the red-skins in force was first discovered. It is agreed on every hand that there is only one line of policy to be pursued till the hostilities shall have lain down their arms in token of submission. But the developments of the Crow Creek Agency came at an unfortunate time for the heartless wretches who had fattened off the blood money they accumulated through the disturbances and wars they have fermented and encouraged. The Government will receive the cordial support of all good citizens in its efforts to save our innocent frontier people from the resentment of the Indians who are too deeply incensed to discriminate between friends and foes. But a spirit is abroad that will compel the authorities to make an example of every culprit hereafter found indulging in the practices of the Crow Creek Agency, and to purge the service of its criminals as with hysoop.

RESUMPTION.

The matter of immediate resumption is still canvassed a good deal notwithstanding the fact that Secretary Sherman is alleged to have denied any intention to anticipate the date fixed by law. His movements in New York on his recent visit are surrounded with just that degree of mystery that leaves everything connected with finances in a state of uncertainty and suspense that cannot but have a mischievous effect upon business. The great infallible journals assured us we were just at the door of resumption. Business men at once began selling their houses in order; before they had fairly completed their preparations, which involved a disarrangement of the usual programme, a denial, seemingly an authoritative, was made. Their hurried arrangements of the day before, were permitted to go by default. They had hardly reconstructed the old plans before the newspaper seers sounded the alarm again, and there is no little grumbling at Mr. Sherman's reticence when, it is claimed, he should speak and make known his policy so far as he can without occasioning greater detriment than is resulting from his silence. By this time all are tolerably familiar with the fact that $200,000,000 lies idle in the Treasury vaults, while we are paying interest on large loans. This policy is the one most severely criticised.

The California farmers living at the extremities of the State near the Oregon and Nevada borders, have got over their Indian scare and are quietly and quickly settling down to work again.

The San Francisco Call publishes a lengthy resume of the condition of crops in California. It has evidently been prepared with great care, and fully justifies the predictions made some time ago. It approximates the total yield of wheat this season at 41,358,000 bushels and of barley at 21,121,800. As to the quality of the wheat crop it divides it thus: Merced, Santa Clara and Contra Costa will produce fine crops; Siakiyou, Tulare, Sacramento, Mendocino, El Dorado, Alameda, Calaveras, Fresno, Inyo, Kern, Lassen, Modoc, Placer, Plumas, San Joaquin, Santa Cruz, Tuolumne and Stanislaus are marked good; Shasta, Tehama, San Bernardino and Sutter, fair; Lake, mixed; Santa Barbara, San Mateo, San Benito, San Luis Obispo, Yolo, Monterey, Mendocino, Ventura, Solano, Sonoma, Butte, Los Angeles, Marin and Yuba are marked poor. The quality of the crop will be below the average, the quantity enormously above and there will be a surplus for export of nearly 1,000,000 tons.

At about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon Pat Flynn, a convict in the Penitentiary at Carson, stabbed and almost instantly killed another convict named William Bethards. Both prisoners were from White Pine, and it seems Bethards had been a deputy sheriff and had arrested Flynn on a charge of robbery which sent him to prison. Afterward Bethards killed a man and followed Flynn to the Penitentiary. Bethards was in for thirteen years. Flynn was originally sent for a long term, and has twice tried to escape, which made his prospects for a speedy release very obscure. It appears that Flynn has all the time borne a mortal hatred to Bethards, and seeing a weapon convenient Monday he seized it, and without a word stepped up to Bethards and stabbed him seven times, killing him almost instantly. The blade of the knife was eleven inches long and there was blood upon it for fully nine inches by actual measurement. It was a murder so altogether unexpected and brutal that it shocked even the ruffians who wear striped clothes and work for the State who witnessed it.

The most enjoyable reading that has met our eyes for a month past is a telegram from Bismarck, Dakota Territory, which states that a party of Standing Rock Indians made an attempt to drown an "Indian Agent," in the Missouri river. If a majority of these "Agents" were shot or drowned, there would be less swindling of the poor aborigines, and, consequently fewer wars between them and the United States army. Driving the red men from their reservations (guaranteed them by treaty) and then permitting racially "Agents" to rob and swindle them in various ways, is what makes the Indians discontented, troublesome and full of revenge. Great Britain has many powerful tribes of Indians within her American possessions, yet who ever heard of a war between them and the British-Canadian soldiery? If you want peaceable red men, (or peaceable neighbors any where,) treat them kindly and honestly.

THE FRYER PROCESS.—It has been a long time since we have had any news of the Fryer process of which so much was at one time expected, particularly among such of our people as were interested in the Meadow Lake mines. The Enterprise now says:

We learn, through the California papers, that letters patent were received last week for improvements on the process, by which it is claimed that it will make a success after all. The company which took hold of the works at Grass Valley persistently but quietly experimenting and working for a long time, and the improvements suggested by experience have been patented. Affidavits filed for the benefit of the examiners at Washington go to show that very favorable results have been accomplished. Charles E. Sherman, President of the Fryer Noble Metal and Mining Company, has been indefatigable in testing and experimenting with the machinery devised by Mr. Fryer, and in due time will probably show the public what can be done with the improvements recently patented.

THE Springfield (Ill.) State Register reports Senator Voorhees, of Indiana, as saying of the instigators of the Potter business: "They can only be regarded as disturbers of the public peace, engaged in a profitless undertaking, and if they do not become the laughing-stock of the country it will not be their fault."

COMMODORE NUTT and Lieutenant Wheeler are on the Comstock.

A CLOUDBURST AT WADSWORTH.—In Litch's School at the 27th inst. says:

From a gentleman who came up on the train night before last, we learn that there was a huge cloudburst on Tuesday last on the line of the Central Pacific, near Wadsworth. The whole desert for miles and miles in that vicinity presented the appearance of a great lake, the water standing in places from six to twenty inches in depth. The road bed was slightly damaged in one place by the washout.

In a sun kitchen, at the Paris show, Professor Douchot of Tours has roasted quails in twenty minutes, and in forty five boiled water. The cooking is done with an apparatus having a strong reflector.

SMALL specimens of rich gold rock from the Scheel mine below Silver City, are being shown in Virginia City. Some twenty tons of very rich rock have been extracted from the claim.

The Maine Republicans will have a hard money plank in their platform.
